GREECE STIRS
DISCORD, U. N.
COUNCIL TOLDTHREE NATIONS SEE
ATTEMPTS TO START WAR

BY WILLIAM L. RYAN

Lake Success, N. Y., Dec. 16 (AP)—Bulgaria, Albania and Yugoslavia joined tonight in a concerted counter-offensive against Greece, charging the royalist-dominated Greek government with responsibility for the country's current guerrilla warfare and demanding an investigation of conditions inside Greece by a United Nations commission.

As the 11-nation security council resumed discussion of Greece's complaint that the three nations had fomented the guerrilla warfare for their own ends, Albania charged the Greek government with trying "to provoke war against its neighbors."

Both Bulgaria and Albania asked an inquiry. Yugoslavia had done likewise last Thursday when the discussion of the Greek charges was begun.

Leftist Plot Charged

Greek Premier Constantinos Tsaldaris renewed his charges, telling the council that only a fraction of the "proofs" he had offered "would have sufficed to justify one in applying the term of aggressor to those states which lend their support to the bands in question."

He said leftist bands penetrating Greece from Albania and Yugoslavia intended to separate from continental Greece the Pindus, Chassia, Olympus, Pierria, Berrion and Paikon areas, while bands from Bulgaria hoped to separate Eastern Macedonia from Western Thrace.

"It would be eminently desirable for the enlightenment of the world and the security council in particular that representatives of the press should be enabled to penetrate into our neighbors' countries with the same freedom that they enjoy in our own," he said.

The council adjourned at 5:42 p. m. (CST) until 9:30 a. m. Wednesday after adopting a suggestion by Chairman Herschel V. Johnson of the United States to invite Bulgaria and Albania to participate in the forthcoming debate without vote.

Parole Is Delayed
For Reading, Former Mayor Of Detroit

Lansing, Dec. 16 (AP)—The state parole board today refused a parole for Richard W. Reading, former mayor of Detroit, serving a sentence for conspiracy to obstruct justice, and ordered another hearing on his case in February.

A hearing, held today in Jackson, was required after the warden of the state prison of southern Michigan recently recommended a special good time allowance for the ex-mayor on the grounds he was in poor health.

The board said it wished to learn the attitude of Circuit Judge Earl C. Pugsley who sentenced Reading, toward the release, to discover whether the federal government intends to press income tax evasion charges against Reading, and to determine his exact physical condition.

Strike Remedy Up
To Industrialists,
Says Head Of CIO

BY ORLO ROBERTSON

Pittsburgh, Dec. 16 (AP)—Philip Murray said today "it is strictly up to the industrialists" to "save the nation from crippling strikes."

Speaking in his dual role as head of the CIO and the 850,000 United Steel Workers after a clearing house conference with Albert Fitzgerald, president of the 600,000 United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers and Walter Reuther, boss of 900,000 United Auto Workers, Murray said:

"It is strictly up to the industrialists to arise to the economic conditions to save the nation from crippling strikes. These three organizations with other CIO unions have a prime interest in collective bargaining that will lead to peaceful solution of the nation's economic ills.

"I am looking forward with the hope and belief that industry will rise to its responsibilities and meet the needs of the nation by providing necessary upward wage adjustments, which we believe will provide for prosperous times ahead."

The heads of the CIO's three biggest unions agreed that the Nathan report, recently made public by Murray, "sets up certain guide posts for joint consideration of representatives of industry and union who'll start collective bargaining in the near future." The report sets forth figures intended to show that wages can be raised as much as 25 per cent without increasing prices and cutting profits much below war time peaks.

Murray said, however, that the Nathan report was no iron bound guide for the various unions, pointing out that the auto workers already had agreed on a basic increase demand of 23 1/2 cents per hour.

"Each union will decide within itself what it wants in the way of an increase," said Murray. "For that reason I can't even say now what the wage and policy committee of the Steel Workers will decide on when it meets Wednesday and Thursday."

"But labor has been criticized in the past for not making public its desires. We have done it this time in the overall report made by Robert R. Nathan."

While today's conference was limited to an exchange of ideas, Murray pointed out that already the three big unions had agreed separately to negotiate for a minimum wage and social insurance.

BAY CITY JAIL
ESCAPE FOILEDFake Doctor Gets Year
Added To Term; Flight
By Plane Planned

Bay City, Mich., Dec. 16 (AP)—A scheme to break jail and flee the country by air backfired today when Leslie Howard Groves, fake medical practitioner, was sentenced to an additional one year imprisonment.

The 25-year-old Royal Oak, Mich., defendant pleaded guilty with John E. Ruthenburg, 27, of Detroit, to an attempt break from the Bay county jail.

Federal Judge Frank Picard added one year to Groves' two-year sentence on a narcotics charge and similarly increased Ruthenburg's three-year sentence on car theft charges.

An 18-year-old Bay cityman, Thomas Sauve, admitted smuggling hacksaw blades to the two prisoners. His sentence was deferred pending a probation report.

Government attorneys told the court that Groves and Ruthenburg plotted to save their way to freedom, rob a tavern and flee the country by stealing an airplane.

Groves received his original sentence after he admitted posing as a physician in Flint, Detroit and Windsor, Ont. He claimed to have delivered a number of babies while practicing the deception.

The jail break attempt was thwarted by a deputy sheriff, Henry Orr, who discovered the mutilated cell bars and later found the hacksaw blades.

Motorist Fined;
Took Snooze On Railroad Tracks

Detroit, Dec. 16 (AP)—Raymond J. Nowak of Dearborn, paid a $15 fine in recorder's court today for an early morning snooze on the Grand Trunk Western railroad tracks.

Patrolman Fred Boewadt found a car parked on the tracks and Novak asleep at the wheel, he told the court. The battery was dead and he recruited passersby to shove the vehicle from the tracks beneath the headlight of an onrushing freight train.

Nowak pleaded guilty to a charge of intoxication and then shook hands with Boewadt.

Police In Detroit
Swamp Court With Traffic Violators

Detroit, Dec. 16 (AP)—Police are writing tickets in Detroit faster than traffic court can handle them.

Without criticizing the officers for their energy, the city council today appropriated $3,600 for eight new clerks to help the court's indexing and records division catch up on a three weeks backlog of work.

Court records showed that police hit an all-time monthly high in October by handing out 55,204 tickets to erring motorists. The council was told that Detroit issues more tickets than New York and Chicago combined.

DEATH TOLL 119

Atlanta, Dec. 16 (AP)—The death toll from the Winecock hotel fire was reduced from 121 to 119 today. The revised figure resulted from police and Red Cross checking which established one duplication of names and one listed erroneously.

Washington, Dec. 16 (AP)—The Navy, with the help of its observatory, today laid down the official deadline for winter's arrival: 4:54 a. m. (CST), Dec. 22.

COURT RULES IN FAVOR OF
JOHN L. LEWISANTI-INJUNCTION
ACT GETS PLACE
IN UMW APPEAL

BY WILLIAM R. SPEAR

Washington, Dec. 16 (AP)—John L. Lewis won a double victory today in preliminary rounds of his legal battles with the government and the coal mine operators.

1. The supreme court granted his petition to broaden the arguments on his appeal from the contempt of court conviction against himself and the United Mine Workers. This enables him to seek the refuge of the Norris-LaGuardia Anti-Injunction Act in the arguments to be heard Jan. 14.

2. The U. S. circuit court of appeals upheld the recognition granted to Lewis' union of mine foremen in the existing contract between the government and the United Mine Workers. The circuit court rejected a challenge interposed by the Jones and Laughlin Steel Corp.

25,000,000 Tons Lost

Outside the courts, the office of temporary controls relaxed the restrictions on coke deliveries caused by the recent soft coal strike but continued those on coal itself. The Solid Fuels Administration estimated the 17-day shutdown cost the country 25,000,000 tons of bituminous coal until Lewis is called off Dec. 22.

The supreme court's granting of the petition Lewis' attorneys filed last week was done in a routine order. The government, initiating the supreme court test with a petition granted last Monday, contended that the Norris-LaGuardia act is not involved in the case, although it said that even if it is, the contempt convictions can stand.

The court's acceptance of Lewis' petition along with the government's opens the way for his counsel to try to invoke the Norris-LaGuardia act in at least three ways.

1. By arguing that Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough's temporary restraining order, on which the contempt convictions were based, was illegal.

2. By raising the question whether a jury trial was mandatory.

3. By questioning whether the union, which was fined $3,500,000, can be held to answer for Lewis' actions.

Rulings Not Mandatory

These three points were among ten raised by the defense petition. Although the supreme court permitted the arguments, it may rule upon all the points or not, as it sees fit subsequently.

The court of appeals decision affirmed a federal district court ruling of last June and upheld the right of the government to make its contract granting recognition to a Lewis union as the bargaining agent of the mine foremen. The union is the united clerical, technical and supervisory employees, a division of district 50 of the UMW.

This case did not involve specifically the right of the foremen to join a union of rank and file workers. A national labor relations board ruling on this point, involving the same Jones and Laughlin mines, is expected soon and plans have been made to get it speedily before the supreme court on appeal for a final decision.

R. J. Thomas, chairman of the CIO housing committee, declared at the same time that Mr. Truman has sounded "the death knell of the veterans' housing program."

His statement added "The ex-GI's will get no homes" under the revised program announced Saturday "but the generals and the well-to-do will."

Foley was sworn in today along with Frank R. Creedon, newly appointed housing expediter.

Creedon told reporters directives will be issued as soon as possible putting into effect Mr. Truman's plan for removing and relaxing many controls over the building industry and encouraging construction of rental housing.

Fake Sugar Stamps

Face Prison Terms

Detroit, Dec. 16 (AP)—Three Chicago men, seized with 65,000 counterfeit sugar stamps by Detroit police, pleaded guilty today before Federal Judge Arthur F. Lederle on charges of conspiracy to violate OPA rationing regulations.

Judge Lederle set Jan. 27 for sentencing of Cito Nicario, 29; Joseph Amabili, 31, and Nunzio Fazio, 23, who were termed "Chicago hoodlums" in court by assistant U. S. attorney Joseph C. Murphy.

Maximum sentence is one year or $10,000 or both.

Whisky Rationing
Ends In Michigan

Lansing, Dec. 16 (AP)—For the average Michigan drinker there will be no more whisky rationing after Wednesday.

The state liquor control commission today ordered rationing stopped Wednesday on all American blended whiskies, which represent 95 per cent of the bottle sales in this state.

But Scotch, bonded bourbons, and Canadian whisky will remain on the ration list for a time.

HOUSING SETUP
BRANDED PHONYDeputy Administrator
Resigns, Raps Truman
Rental Financing

Washington, Dec. 16 (AP)—Norton E. Long resigned as deputy housing administrator today with a statement challenging the administration to show its "so-called incentives to encourage rental housing are anything but a fraud perpetrated on veterans for political expediency."

Long, a top assistant to former Housing Expediter Wilson W. Wyatt, called President Truman's proposal to make an additional $1,000,000,000 available to finance rental housing a "complete phony."

Long said the money Mr. Truman mentioned as being released for rental housing was already available to the Federal Housing Administration. He added that Wyatt had been unable to persuade Raymond M. Foley, newly appointed administrator of the National Housing Agency, to make the funds available on a basis which would enable builders to use them.

R. J. Thomas, chairman of the CIO housing committee, declared at the same time that Mr. Truman has sounded "the death knell of the veterans' housing program."

His statement added "The ex-GI's will get no homes" under the revised program announced Saturday "but the generals and the well-to-do will."

Foley was sworn in today along with Frank R. Creedon, newly appointed housing expediter.

Wild Negro Hidden
From Mob; Six Shot
In Roaring Gunplay

Murfreesboro, Tenn., Dec. 16 (AP)—A city patrolman died tonight from wounds suffered in a roaring hour of gunplay in which four other policemen were wounded when a negro went berserk during questioning today by officers. State police headed off possible mob violence after the affray.

The patrolman, Herbert McClanahan, died from a head wound in a hospital at 8 p. m. (CST).

The negro, identified as Edmond Hayes, also was wounded in the firing. The Central State hospital, an institution for the insane, listed a man of the same name, age 54, as a former inmate.

He had been taken to the city jail on a storekeeper's complaint that he was acting suspiciously in his establishment.

While undergoing questioning by patrolman Herbert McClanahan, Hayes felled the officer with a bullet through the head, apparently after seizing McClanahan's pistol. McClanahan was taken to the hospital in critical condition.

Barricaded In House

As Hayes ran firing from the city hall, with a pistol in one hand and a shotgun in the other, he wounded Police Chief N. W. Powers, who was unarmed, in the chest. Powers wound was not serious.

Haynes ran to a house three blocks away where he barricaded himself. After exchanging fire with officers who poured volley after volley into the building for nearly an hour, Hayes came out wounded and with his hands raised.

During the blazing siege of the building sheriff Earl McKnight of Rutherford county, fire chief B. B. (Buck) Qualls of Murfreesboro, and Ray Armstrong, a truck driver, were struck by shotgun slugs. None was hurt seriously, although McKnight required hospitalization.

As the gunbattle progressed in this community of some 10,000, thirty-one miles southeast of Nashville, a crowd of between 150 and 200 joined the embattled officers around the house. Upon Hayes' surrender, he was rushed to the Rutherford county jail where a threatening crowd of several hundred gathered.

By a ruse, the state highway patrolmen, with help from Murfreesboro police, got Hayes out of a side entrance and sped off to Nashville with him. At Nashville General hospital he was under treatment for multiple wounds.

Confusion Eliminated

The negotiations already had started when the Senate-House committee which investigated the Pearl Harbor attack issued its report, pointing to the confusion in intelligence and defense planning there which arose from the fact that the army and navy chiefs were each responsible for only their own fields and neither had supreme authority. These factors had been brought out previously, however, by other investigations.

The new plan, making the top theater commanders responsible directly to the joint chiefs of staff, was announced jointly by the war and navy departments.

The announcement said the plan is designed to "place responsibility for the conduct of military operations of the land, naval and air forces in the several regions of military importance to the United States each in the hands of one single commander."

Seven areas defined in the announcement are:

Far East, commanded by Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

Pacific, by Adm. John H. Towers.

Alaskan, a new command, by Maj. Gen. H. A. Craig.

Northeast, also a new command, commander to be named.

Atlantic fleet, by Adm. Marc A. Mitscher.

Caribbean, operating under the present system with Lt. Gen. Willis D. Crittenden.

BLUM'S CABINET
ALL SOCIALISTSNew French Premier Has Struggle To Avert
Government Crisis

BY A. I. GOLDBERG

Paris, Dec. 16 (AP)—Socialist Premier Leon Blum, acting to avert a crisis that "threatened to become perilous," formed an all-Socialist cabinet today after failing to bring Communists and their opponents into a coalition caretaker government.

The national assembly will be asked to give the cabinet a vote of confidence tomorrow. Observers said they expected Blum to receive almost unanimous endorsement, despite the fact that neither of France's two most powerful parties—the Communists and the Popular Republican Movement (MRP)—were represented.

Tonight, the 74-year-old Blum, who will be premier-president and foreign minister in the new cabinet to serve until mid-January said in a broadcast to the nation that he had been forced to name a one-party cabinet and asked:

"What was I to do? What was my duty?"

"I realize that it looks odd for a party that has less than 100 members in an assembly that has more than 600 members to present a government. But we had to put an end to a crisis in government that threatened to become perilous."

VETERAN DROWNS

SINGLE CHIEF
IN EACH AREAMACARTHUR'S VAST
PACIFIC THEATER
PARED DOWN

Washington, Dec. 16 (AP)—Remembering Pearl Harbor, the nation's military leaders announced a new setup tonight placing every area where American forces operate under a single top commander, either of the army or navy.

"This obviates a situation like Pearl Harbor where we had two equal commanders," Maj. Gen. William H. Arnold, deputy chief of operations and planning, told a news conference. "It insures a unified operational command in the theaters."

War Setup Restored

The single command system was recommended by the joint chiefs of staff, worked out in long negotiations between the war and navy departments, and approved by President Truman. It restores for peacetime the unified command setup under which the war was fought but which subsequently was abandoned.

It applies only to the top level of planning and operations in the theaters, leaving the respective commanders in charge of their own forces under the overall command, and Arnold indicated it does not alter the army's desire for complete unification of the services. Mr. Truman said last week he will renew his demand for this legislation when the new Congress meets.

Arnold commented, however, that "this is the closest approximation you could get without actually having unification of the departments." He added that with unification, "these prolonged negotiations wouldn't have been necessary."

The negotiations already had started when the Senate-House committee which investigated the Pearl Harbor attack issued its report, pointing to the confusion in intelligence and defense planning there which arose from the fact that the army and navy chiefs were each responsible for only their own fields and neither had supreme authority. These factors had been brought out previously, however, by other investigations.

LEGION BEGINS MEMBER DRIVE

Escanaba Post Sets Top Goal Of 1,000 For Year 1946-47

Shooting at a goal of 1,000 members for the year 1946-47, the Escanaba Post 82, American Legion, launched their annual membership campaign last night at an enthusiastic meeting following a banquet served by the Legion Auxiliary.

Elmer Olson, past commander, was chairman of the banquet program, and also gave a report on the state of the Legion during the year. He announced the appointment of three membership recruiting teams, two composed of World War 2 veterans and one of World War 1 veterans. The teams are as follows:

Lester Kenny, Captain, Elmer LaCoste, John Pellow, Delor Perrow, Gene Raymond, Harold R. Govort, Thomas Beaton, Chester Borden, Raymond Charles, Alfred Dahl, Robert Gannon, Bill Butler, Claude Tobin, Jr., Captain, Thomas Quinn, Bill Boyle, Hubert McManis, Emil Larsen, Alfred Hansen, William Ranguette, Leo Alperovitz, Nevin Reynolds, Mildred Bawden, Ted Dugas, Cliff Beaudin.

Iron River Builder Is Low Bidder For Houghton Tech Job

Lansing, Dec. 16 (AP)—The building committee of the State Administrative Board today recommended contracts for new structures at the Wayne University and Michigan College of Mining and Technology and a land purchase for the Michigan veterans' facility.

W. E. Wood and Company, Detroit, was winner of the contract for a new science building at Wayne. He bid $1,500,000 for his total cost and $115,000 for his fixed sum profit.

A. A. Procksch, Iron River, was low bidder at $548,000 and a fixed sum of $77,000 for the mining school's new physical education building.

The committee approved buying 23 parcels of land, about four acres, for a power house site for the veterans' facility for $62,000. The committee said another purchase of about eight acres would be bought later.

Relief Too Late As Chinese Reds Seize Chungyang

BY TOM MASTERSON
Peiping, Dec. 16 (AP)—Government military authorities reported today that the long-besieged Shansi province city of Chungyang fell to the Communists yesterday just as a Nationalist relieving force moved into sight.

Walled Chungyang had been under loose general siege for 15 months and under close encirclement and direct assault for 16 days. It is 100 miles southeast of Communists' Yenan headquarters and 85 miles southwest of Taiyuan, Shansi provincial capital, which government officials presumed to be the true communist objective.

The report of Chungyang's fall said the government relief column, on the march in wild country for days, had crested the hills only 13 miles away when the communists overwhelmed the hungry garrison.

Expect Airport Survey To Determine Field Site

Representatives of the Civil Aeronautics Administration and the Michigan Aeronautics Department today will again go over the present and proposed new Escanaba airport sites and will then draft a preliminary report that, together with local factors, is expected to determine which of the two sites—or both—will receive state and federal aid funds for development.

Members of the Delta county airport authority named by the board of supervisors, the airport committee of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce, and city officials, met last night with the CAA and State Aeronautics Department representatives in the Chamber of Commerce office.

They conferred with L. D. Hale, district airport engineer, and J. J. Lynch of the CAA, and W. E. Hamlen of the State Aeronautics Department. The three men are now concluding an airport inspection tour of the U. P. and will leave Escanaba today for St. Ignace for a meeting there tonight.

SINGLE CHIEF RULES FORCES IN EACH AREA

No Change For Guam
During the war, operations in the various theaters were conducted under over-all command, but with the end of hostilities several of these reverted to a divided status in which neither the army nor navy chief in the area had final word in planning.

The unified command system will pass from MacArthur some of the once vast Pacific area which he controlled, leaving him with the Far Western Pacific regions.

The Far East command consists of American forces in Japan, Korea, the Philippines, the Marianas, Bonins and Ryukyus.

The announcement said the civil and military government of Guam and the former Japanese mandated islands are not changed. The Marianas will eventually revert to the Pacific command, the announcement said, the present arrangement being designed to give support to MacArthur in the military occupation of Japan and southern Korea.

Directives Prepared
The Pacific and Alaskan commands are roughly the same as the former "Pacific Ocean areas." The northeast command will include bases and forces in the "northeastern approaches" to the United States. The Caribbean command will include the islands of that sea and the present Panama Canal department.

Directives from the joint chiefs of staff putting the new system in operation are being issued now. The joint announcement said that each commander will be responsible for unified planning for defense and in case of emergency the conduct of operations. This agreement does not change the day-to-day administrative business of each service, it was explained.

Forces assigned to any one of the unified commands normally will be from two or more of the three services—army, navy, and army air—each component commanded directly by an officer of that service. Each officer exercising unified command will be assisted by a joint staff, comprised of officers from the component services.

The report of Chungyang's fall said the government relief column, on the march in wild country for days, had crested the hills only 13 miles away when the communists overwhelmed the hungry garrison.

PAROLES GIVEN 2 EX-SENATORS

Detroit Democrats Wind Up Prison Terms In State Graft Case

Lansing, Dec. 16. (AP)—Former Senator Leo J. Wilkowski, and former Rep. Francis J. Nowak, both Detroit Democrats, will be paroled next month from sentences resulting from the Ingham county grand jury's investigation of graft in state government.

Both were sentenced August 12, 1944, for conspiracy in connection with the so-called finance company case and drew three to five year sentences. Both are paroled on the expiration of their minimum terms plus good time allowances. Both were sentenced later to similar terms, to run concurrently, following conviction in the naturopathic case.

The parole board said Wilkowski will be released January 5 and Nowak January 4, both for 18-month paroles.

The two are the second and third to be released of former legislators convicted of graft. The first was former Rep. William G. Buckley, Detroit, Democrat, who went out November 29.

At the same time, the state parole board disclosed special early paroles will be granted 24 inmates to permit them to spend Christmas with their families. All inmates eligible for parole before December 24 and January 1 are to be released December 24.

Lower Food Prices Foreseen For Spring

Washington, Dec. 16. (AP)—The agriculture department said tonight trends indicate that food prices—now at record levels—will drop within three to six months as food after World War I, although probably not as much.

It reported prices have risen more in the last four months than in any comparable period during the 33 years in which records have been kept.

The department said retail meat prices throughout the winter are likely to decline but little from present high levels despite seasonally high production and large supplies. Pork and lamb prices may advance in the spring as production decreases. However, prices of beef, especially of the better grades, may fall in the spring as supplies of grain-fed beef increase.

Pearl Harbor Docks Menaced By Blaze; Damage Not Heavy

Honolulu, Dec. 16 (AP)—An oil fire that threatened docks at Pearl Harbor navy yard and for a time forced fire fighters to withdraw was brought under control in mid-afternoon today with slight damage and no casualties, the Navy said.

All available firefighting equipment and personnel had been rushed to the scene by Rear Adm. Louis Dreller, as the fire swept two floating drydocks and menaced shore installations.

Nearby ships and drydocks were towed into midstream for safety, and at one time firefighters were ordered back as flames soared from leaking oil pipelines beneath a pier.

All-Star Outfit Of 24 Picked For Shrine Game Jan. 1

Chicago, Dec. 16. (AP)—Twenty-four football players making up the East All-Star squad that will meet the West All-Stars in the Shrine hospital benefit game at San Francisco New Year's day will assemble at Northwestern University tomorrow prior to leaving for the coast that evening.

The squad is under the direction of coaches Andy Kerr of Colgate, Bernie Bierman of Minnesota and Beatty Feathers of North Carolina State. No workout is scheduled because of inclement weather. The coaches plan a chalk talk outlining the system of play to be used in the game. The squad will leave for San Francisco at 7:30 p. m. CST.

Members of this year's squad: Backs—Pete Pihos, Indiana; Ed Cody, Purdue; Bob Sandberg, Minnesota; Ed Ilen, Pennsylvania; Nick Sacraty, Wake Forest; Larry Bruno, Geneva; Tom Dorsey, Brown; Joe Watt, Syracuse and Paul Weaver, Penn State.

Ends—Cecil Souders, Ohio State; Elmer Madar, Michigan; Bob Skoglund, Notre Dame; Art Littleton, Pennsylvania, and Walter Roberts, Holy Cross.

Tackles—Joe Kearns, Ohio University; Bernie Gallagher, Pennsylvania; William Moore, Penn State, and Ed Stacco, Colgate.

Guards—Ed Hirsch, Northwestern; Hal Dean, Ohio State; John Mastrangelo and Fred Rovai, Notre Dame.

TAFT NOT OUT FOR PRESIDENT

Republican Good Will Promised People Of The South

BY ROMNEY WHEELER
Atlanta, Dec. 16. (AP)—Senator Robert Taft (R-Ohio) declared today that he did not consider himself a current candidate for president.

Taft gave a flat "No" in reply to a question if he was an active candidate now for the Republican presidential nomination.

His comment was in reply to an Associated Press query in a news conference preceding an address here to a civic luncheon. Later, speaking to the Atlanta Rotary club and guests of other civic groups, Taft pledged that there would be nothing but sympathy for the south among Republicans in Washington.

"I can't see what the south has to fear from the Republican program," he said. "The Republicans like the people of the south. I think you can count on the good will of the Republican party."

Taft declared the recent election was waged on the issue of "totalitarianism versus freedom from government controls." And, he said, the people had given the Republican party a mandate for elimination of wartime controls.

Federal expenditures, he continued, amid applause, must be cut to $30,000,000,000 (billion) annually, "if not this year, then at least by next year."

He pledged the Republican party to comprehensive legislation on labor relations which he said would restore the balance between business and organized labor.

WARN DRIVERS OF ICE HAZARD

Streets, Highways Icy
Following Sleet
Storm Here

Following a rain and sleet storm that coated streets and highways with a glare of ice, driving conditions became extremely dangerous, and brought from Escanaba Police Chief M. F. Ettenhofer a warning that motorists must drive slowly if they are to avoid serious accidents.

City and county highway crews began sanding intersections and other dangerous traffic spots yesterday afternoon.

Listing seven rules to reduce the toll of deaths, accidents and traffic tieups which snow, ice and reduced visibility cause each winter, the police chief said that serious consideration of them will save drivers and pedestrians a lot of trouble. Based on new research and tests by the National Safety Council new rules follow:

1. When starting out, get the "feel" of the road by trying your brakes while driving slowly and when no other vehicles are near.

2. On wet, snowy, or icy road surfaces, reduce your speed so you can stop in time if faced with an emergency. Remember—you may find icy surfaces on bridges or shaded sections of an otherwise clear road surface.

3. When you have to stop, apply your brakes lightly and intermittently—jamming them on may lock them and throw your car or truck into a dangerous skid.

4. Keep windshield and windows clear of snow and ice outside, and fog and frost inside.

5. Use tire chains on ice and snow. They may reduce braking distances 40 to 50 per cent and provide needed "go" traction. Remember—chains are no cure-all for winter accidents, but they are indispensable under severe snow and ice conditions and will help the careful driver.

Bonus Is Awarded

By J. C. Penney Co.

The Board of Directors of the J. C. Penney Company have just authorized a special payment of two weeks' extra salary, for all full-time associates who have been employed for the full year of 1946 and on a proportionate basis for extra and part-time associates and for those employed less than a year. All Penney associates throughout the Company share in this payment except those who are members of the Management Staff and whose earnings are determined largely by the Company's long-standing Profit-Sharing Plan.

Mr. Jackson, manager of the J. C. Penney Company store said that 36 associates of the Escanaba store will participate in this payment which was authorized because of the unusual business situation and results of the past year. He further emphasized that this was not a Christmas bonus in the usual sense but was simply an extra payment resulting from extra business and earnings and was non-recurring. The Company some years ago substituted a Thrift and Profit-Sharing Plan for the more usual Christmas bonus and into this plan is annually paid a proportionate share of Company earnings.

FUR FARMING TALK IS GIVEN

Stephenson Of Nieman
Ranches Speaks To Kiwanis Club

An illustrated talk on the silver fox ranch business was given by Ronald Stephenson, Thiensville, Wis., official of the Nieman fur enterprises, at the meeting of the Kiwanis club at the Sherman hotel Monday noon.

Mr. Stephenson showed colored movies of the raising of foxes at his farm in Thiensville, the transporting of them in early fall to the range at Hermansville, the annual roundup of foxes and the pelting operations at the three-story building in the village of Hermansville.

The Nieman chain consists of five ranches in Ozaukee county: Wisconsin and two in the Upper Peninsula, at Hermansville and Manistique. The fox diet consists of horse meat, cereals, cod liver oil and ground bones. The Nieman ranches use about 15,000 horses annually, Stephenson said.

Pelting operations started at Hermansville on Nov. 24 and were completed yesterday afternoon. More than 41,000 foxes were pelted and shipped to New York City, where they will be auctioned off after the holidays.

The seven farms are owned by various members of the Nieman family, but all buying and selling for the group is done under the Herbert A. Nieman company home.

Housing Shackles Broken

PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S action Saturday in removing many of the controls that have shackled the housing program should be a long step forward in meeting the critical housing shortage.

Although President Truman did not cut the strings out entirely from the housing controls since it still is necessary to get government approval to build a home, he did clear the way for anyone to build a new house who desires to do so.

The effect will undoubtedly be a considerable easing in the situation for rental homes, and because of this the new program will work better for war veterans as a whole than the previous program did. It is a fact that more veterans are interested only in renting a home now than in building. Families vacating homes in which they now live to take occupancy in new homes will provide quarters for those who are interested primarily in renting.

The continuance of limitations on non-residential construction, with some liberalization, is justified in view of the great demand for supplies to meet the housing construction program. The emphasis must be placed on new homes rather than new racetracks.

In many communities, including Escanaba, the home building problem is not confined solely to the availability of building materials. There is also the problem of availability of sufficient trained labor in the building trades industry, such as carpenters, bricklayers, plumbers, etc. This is a bottleneck that may jeopardize the great expansion in home construction that now appears imminent under the revised national policy.

Plane Accidents

THE increase in private airplane accidents apparent in recent months is probably due to the tremendous expansion in private flying in the postwar period, but the situation is not one that can easily be shrugged off.

Airplane manufacturers, it may be presumed, are doing all in their power to improve the safety factor of their machines, but some educational work still is required to reduce the human hazard factor. Airplane ads portray the idea that flying the private planes is practically without danger, but the increase in private plane accidents does not verify this.

An airplane still is a dangerous instrument in the hands of any individual who fails to utilize common sense or who is prone to be careless.

Support of C. of C.

WITH an outstanding record of achievement already made, the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce has launched its annual membership campaign so that it will be adequately financed for its future program of work.

The Escanaba Chamber of Commerce looks forward to a busy year. Its various committees are meeting this week to plan various activities that will redound to the benefit of everyone in the community — members and non-members of the civic organization which for the past quarter century has been working for Escanaba's best interests.

Probably no city of Escanaba's size in America can boast of an industrial expansion program such as that which was undertaken three years ago by the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce. At that time, the City of Escanaba and the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce were brought together in a unique cooperative undertaking to attract new industries. And it worked.

Here is a partial list of the new industries, small, medium and large, which either came here by direct efforts made by the Chamber of Commerce and the City of Escanaba, or were inspired to locate here as a result of the promotional efforts: Freeman Furniture, Venus Garment company, Fence Company of America, Solar Furniture company, Delta Furniture company, Ex-GI Battery company, Hiawatha Manufacturing company, Elsen-draath Glove company, Worth Fishing Tackle company and Harnischfeger Manufacturing company.

But the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce does not confine its activities to industrial development. It carries on a broad program, which is designed to expand Escanaba's retail and wholesale business, the tourist industry, Delta county agriculture, and other civic activities.

Sigler in Digest

KIM SIGLER, Michigan's new governor will increase in stature as a national political figure this week when the January issue of the widely read and potent Reader's Digest hits the news stands and mailboxes.

Karl Detzer, a Michigan writer who is now roving correspondent for the Digest, states in his article that Sigler "crowds more righteous indignation into five minutes than most men generate in a year."

He points out that Sigler, as grand jury prosecutor, sent more than 50 grafting citizens of both parties to jail.

Political opponents made wise-cracks about Sigler's being a fancy dresser. They accused him of owning more than forty suits, believing that this type of "smart politics" would make him unpopular with the farmers. But the rural voters went for him four to one, and he defeated Murray D. Van Wagoner, former Democratic governor and once a power in Michigan politics, by a plurality of 350,000.

Kim Sigler has what it takes to make the newspaper headlines and the magazine pages. If he gets more of the breaks he has been getting and takes advantage of them, he is likely to go places in national politics.

Lake Fishing Treaty

THE proposed treaty with Canada on Great Lakes fishing will come before the 80th Congress and if it is ratified, a six-man commission will control the taking of fish in the Great Lakes and connecting streams and lakes for the next 10 years.

The proposed commission would make regulations on open and closed seasons, open and closed waters, size limits for each species of fish, the time, methods and intensity of fishing; type and specification nets, gear and apparatus; methods of measurement; catch returns and other statistical records.

Commercial fishermen of the upper lakes region, who first seemed interested in the idea of uniform fishing laws, appear to have turned against it in recent months. One of the objections is that the commission would be composed of three American and three Canadian members, although 80 per cent of the fish production comes from American waters of the Great Lakes.

Whether an evenly-balanced commission would work to the disadvantage of American fishing interests is open to question, however. The chief value of the treaty would be that it would set up uniform regulations between the states bordering the Great Lakes. There is an utter lack of uniformity now, a situation which sometimes creates conflict between commercial fishermen of neighboring states.

Why wouldn't it be a good idea to try a uniform fishing treaty out for once? It might work out better than expected, and if it isn't satisfactory it could be abandoned later.

TEACHERS ASK PAY BOOST

(Marquette Mining Journal)

Marquette public school teachers have petitioned the board of school trustees for a cost of living bonus of $300 for 1946 and an increase of $300 in salaries for 1947. They ask that $300 be spread in monthly payments from January to June and that the same amount be spread in monthly payments throughout the year.

There can be no doubt that, as the teachers contend, there has been "a continuous rise in living costs since June, 1946," and that they are entitled to relief. The school board, it may be assumed, is disposed to do whatever it can, as soon as it can, but its position is difficult. It has not yet been determined exactly what amendment No. 2 will mean to the school districts in dollars and cents, and the formula for distribution of state aid still is in the making.

This situation, however, does not alter the plight of teachers who, with other fixed income groups, have been badly squeezed by the steady increases in the cost of living. Although they have had one salary boost this year, city and county employees have had two, and, as always has been the case, the teachers are trailing far behind other professions for which the cost and length of training is comparable.

The fact that Marquette teachers are as well, if not better, paid as those in communities of similar size also does not alter the situation. The truth is that the teaching profession has been disintegrating rapidly everywhere because it has failed to offer the financial security necessary to attract and hold men and women of ability.

David Lawrence went to the heart of the problem the other day when he wrote that "businessmen of America who are interested in keeping down 'leftist' influences are the citizens with responsibility in the local communities. They can, if they assert themselves, influence the municipal governments to get rid of their red tape and make the city budgets conform to current living costs."

Take My Word For it . . . Frank Colby

WORDS TO WATCH

Troy: Please discuss the pronunciation of the word tomato. I prefer "to-MAY-to" but I've been told that "to-MAY-to" belongs only to the lower classes. Even Emily Post fails to back me up—she prefers "to-MAH-to"—Mrs. J. C. B.

Answer: "To-MAH-to" is heard occasionally; but it is part of the fading elegance of a past era. Of seven American dictionaries often cited by me—Merriam Webster's, Funk and Wagnalls, Macmillan's, Winston's, New Century, Thorndike Century, and Kenyon and Knott's—only Funk and Wagnalls and the New Century prefer "toMAH-to." All others list "to-MAY-to" as first choice.

But a higher authority than the dictionaries establishes "to-MAY-to" as the prevailing Standard American pronunciation; that authority is accepted American usage.

Mrs. Post and many others who uphold the sanctity of "to-MAH-to" have apparently picked the pronunciation up from the British, who also speak of a banana as "ba-NAH-na." Of course, no American in his right mind would go around saying "ba-NAH-na." It would be even more lunatic to insist that a potato is a "po-TAH-to."

Nevertheless, tomato and potato have identical origins: they are English words

World Events Analyzed

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Washington—As an apostle of hands-across-the-sea to our British cousins, Henry A. Wallace appears in what is for him a new Rome. In his now famous Madison Square Garden speech last fall, he leaned heavily on the traditional wickedness of British imperialism.

After the revolt in the British labor party, aimed at Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin's policies, Wallace sent a warm telegram of congratulations to the leader of that revolt in Parliament, R. H. S. Crossman. Although Wallace was not aware of it, his wire caused a great deal of heart-searching among the group in revolt.

To begin with, they were somewhat taken back at discovering that Wallace regarded himself as their ally. In his Madison Square Garden speech he had seemed to approve a two-bloc world, one-half dominated by American democracy and the other half by Russian Communism. This was exactly what Crossman opposed in parliament, insisting that Britain could show "the world that it was not faced with the bleak and blank alternatives of American free enterprise or Russian Communism."

—LOOKED LIKE BETRAYAL—

By this time, the men and women in revolt had begun a little to regret their action. It had the look of betrayal. In New York, Bevin was laboring in the council of foreign ministers, trying to bring British foreign policy into line with the painful realities of Britain's present position. It is a task that stout, solid Bevin, now homeward bound, has sweated over unendingly ever since the labor government came to power.

For some time, Crossman's followers debated whether a reply should be sent to Wallace. Any sort of reply, it was argued, might indicate an alliance between the Wallace faction in America and the Crossman group within the British labor party, when in actuality no such alliance existed. Finally, more than two weeks after receipt of the Wallace message, a friendly but more or less meaningless reply was sent.

As a conscientious editor, Wallace says he is saving this to print in the new republic. At the same time, he is considering the wisdom of an editorial which would call for a link between the Wallaces in this country and the Crossmans in Great Britain.

The differences between the two factions are certainly greater than the similarities. While Crossman and his followers represent a wide range of opinion, they are all labor members of parliament, and while at times they may be critical of the government in power, they would agree almost without exception that they would not exchange that government for any other combination that might come out of British politics today.

When it came to a showdown in the House of Commons, there were no votes in favor of Crossman's resolution criticizing Bevin's policy. This came after Crossman had asked to have the motion withdrawn. Slightly more than 100 labor members abstained from voting by staying in their seats or by not attending the session at all.

Included among the members of the labor party in parliament who have been critical of Bevin are a few fellow travelers. Konni Zilliacus, for example, is just as much an advocate of "Russia, Right or Wrong," as any American traveling on the Communist party line. But the group includes many more who have been voluble and persistent critics of the Soviet Union.

—INTERESTING POLL RESULTS—

Recent polls of opinion in England have shown an interesting attitude. When Bevin's policy was presented as "standing up to Russia," 73 percent were in favor and 12 percent against. But when it was labelled "Knuckling Down to America," the percentage in favor dropped to 58 and those opposed amounted to 19 percent.

A careful survey by a representative of the Union for democratic action in London showed that, if it came to voting in parliament on whether Bevin or Crossman should be foreign secretary, Bevin would get at least 70 votes from the members who abstained in the vote on the Crossman resolution. Of the remaining 30, perhaps 10 would prefer someone like Zilliacus.

The contrast with Wallace is sharp. He is not in office and not likely to be in the foreseeable future. His standing in the Democratic party is uncertain. As editor of the New Republic, he has a public form which he is working conscientiously to enlarge. Incidentally, his first editorial is more moderate in tone than the speech that caused the political explosion.

In Britain's powerful labor party, there are men like Wallace who are inclined to see the world through a rosy haze of idealism. But it includes many others who have learned through responsibility the realities of this present world.

Same old world! Wives will again give husbands a wallet at the most inappropriate time: Christmas.

from Spanish words from Indian words of this hemisphere, thus: tomato, tomato, tomato; batata, patata, potato.

The pronunciation "to-MAH-to," while occasionally heard, is obsolescent as far as the country as a whole is concerned. To the average American "to-MAH-to" sounds like an affectionation, and for that reason I advise against it, especially in any kind of public speaking.

Let me repeat what I regard as very sound advice for those who are interested in better speech: If a word has two dictionary-sanctioned pronunciations, always use the one that is preferred by the majority of the people. This is particularly good advice for broadcasters and people in picture.

Still to Be Dealt With Good Morning!

By The Bugler

SLIGHT ERROR—A recent news article in the Menominee Herald-Leader made a non-stop and generally derogatory descriptive tour of major airports in the Upper Peninsula, and came to the modestly astounding conclusion that Menominee's airport is the best in the U. P. While this conclusion was not contested, at least in this column, a slight error in describing the Escanaba airport should be corrected for the sake of inter-city harmony.

Danathan

At the same time it might be pointed out that Escanaba has no current airport problem and does not anticipate any difficulty in the immediate future. While the city airport is more used than at any time in its history (total arrivals of visiting planes last fall hovered around the 100 mark per month) it is adequate for the time being.

THEY REPORTED—It was reported by the Menominee newspaper:

"Escanaba is ready to abandon its present M-35 airport out near the high school football stadium, in favor of a site in North Escanaba, part of which includes the ore dock area acquired by the federal government in wartime for the construction of emergency ore docks. To back its plan Escanaba has already submitted a bid to the government of $65,000 for the ore dock site. This represents more than the city and county of Menominee put up for its share of the present $265,000 new (Menominee) county airport."

Realizing that the new ore dock site for an airport would be a costly venture even with federal help, Escanaba has asked Gladstone to consider going in with Escanaba on a twin-city airport, but so far no definite action has been taken."

THE SITUATION—Escanaba city council has not so far indicated its intention to abandon the present city airport which, incidentally, is located more than a mile north of the football stadium. It has leased the airport to Pioneer Aviation at the request of that corporation, but the property is still owned by the city.

"Realizing that the city does not know whether it will expand the present airport or even develop a new airport on the ore dock property it seeks to purchase from the government. There are still too many questions unanswered, and the principal one is whether the city's bid for the ore dock property will be accepted."

Should the city acquire the property and sponsor construction of a new airport (which would be located west of US-2 and south of the county infirmary) there is the possibility that it still would not abandon the present airport. Why? Because it has been advised by aeronautics officials that it would be ideal for small private planes and as a flying school site.

FINANCING—The Menominee newspaper report compares the purchase price offered by Escanaba for the ore dock site with an unannounced cost paid by Menominee city and county in the development of the Menominee airport. What should be made clear is that Escanaba will, if its bid is approved by the federal government, acquire more than an airport site.

INTO THE PAST

10 Years Ago—1936

Lansing—A special session of the Michigan legislature was called by Gov. Frank D. Fitzgerald today to consider an unemployment insurance bill.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Meloche and Mrs. Alexina Meloche returned from an extended motor trip through Canada.

Gladstone—Bobby and Billy Lindahl, twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Lindahl, were guests of honor at a party held on the occasion of their tenth birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Erickson, Sr., have left for St. Petersburg, Fla., where they will spend the winter months.

Escanaba's affirmative debate team won its engagement with the Menominee trio last night by a wide margin. Members of the winning team were Beatrice Morton, Bill Clark and Allen Earle.

20 Years Ago—1926

Washington, D. C.—Albert B. Fall and Edward L. Doheny were acquitted yesterday after the jury in the District of Columbia supreme court deliberated for 19 hours.

Los Angeles, Calif.—Lita Grey Chaplin announced today that she would file suit for divorce from Charles Spencer Chaplin, screen comedian.

Miss Violet Constantineau, student at Western State Normal, Kalamazoo, has arrived home for the holidays.

Manistee—Miss Nona Hruska was hostess at a party at her home on South Third street. Prizes at cards were won by Miss Emma Hayden and Kathleen McNamara.

The condition of Eileen Hirn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hirn, who submitted to an operation for appendicitis, is reported to be satisfactory.

It will obtain valuable shore frontage on the bay, a total of 1,985 acres of land, and thousands of board feet of lumber which can be salvaged from approximately 30,000 driven pilings. The salvage operations should bring a return to the city estimated at more than $300,000. Not all of the land will be used by the city, and there will be additional space for the city's rapidly developing industrial expansion program.

AND GLADSTONE—The Menominee newspaper account infers that Escanaba seeks to interest Gladstone in the new airport proposal because of the financial assistance Gladstone would give, if so it is a minor one.

The Delta county Board of Aeronautics appointed by the board of supervisors has invited Gladstone to participate in the project, and so has the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce aeronautics committee. So far as we know there has been no flat rejection reported by the Gladstone city council, and the door is being left open in the event that city wishes to come in. Gladstone is not without its pride in such matters, and that city and Escanaba have never been considered "twin cities" in the sense that Menominee and Marinette are. If Gladstone wants to and can swing its own airport deal it is its own business.

MENOMINEE IS AHEAD—If it will make that community happier we are pleased to report that state and federal officials, together with Upper Peninsula pilots, agree that Menominee is far ahead of other U. P. communities in its airport plans for the future. At the rate of development shown, Menominee will be in a position to handle air-

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Washington—It won't be announced for awhile, but Attorney General Tom Clark is hatching a unique plan for selling civil liberties to the American people. He will send a special train through the 48 states carrying some of the priceless treasures of American freedom.

It was Clark, working quietly behind the scenes, who had more than anyone else to do with organizing the President's special committee on civil liberties which will study southern lynchings and race problems. Clark, who comes from Texas, has been prompt to invoke federal law in South Carolina-Louisiana race disputes, but believes that more can be done by education.

Accordingly he has evolved the idea of sending a special train across the United States containing the most sacred documents of American history which guarantees our freedom.

At first Clark proposed equipping two special cars with showcases which would display the bill of rights, the Declaration of Independence, the Emancipation proclamation, the Constitution and so on.

However, he found that the proclamation of emancipation by which Lincoln freed the slaves was in the hands of Abraham Rosenbach of Philadelphia, famous collector of old manuscripts. Clark, therefore, called Rosenbach to tell him about his plan and ask for the loan of the proclamation.

Rosenbach said he would be delighted to cooperate, but asked:

"Why are you having only two cars? I've got lots of old Americana. Why not get up an entire train?"

"We haven't got the money," replied the Attorney General. "Haven't you heard that we're trying to economize down here?"

Rosenbach then offered to help raise the extra money and, as a result, it is now planned to equip an entire special train with showcases in which will be displayed the most cherished documents of American history. Soldiers will guard the train, just as guards stand watch continually over these documents in the library of congress. In addition, as the train arrives at each state border, an extra car will be added displaying the historic documents and civil rights mementoes of the state.

Finally, Clark plans to have large-size duplicates of the freedom documents "blown-up" as permanent exhibits to be left behind in the high schools of each city through which the train passes.

—SUPPRESSED MACARTHUR BOOK—

More background is now leaking out regarding the remarkable top secret cable sent by General MacArthur to the war department banning editors of the New York Herald Tribune, Christian Science Monitor and several other newspapers from taking a special trip to Japan on the ground that they verged on "downright quackery and dishonesty."

It now appears that one reason for MacArthur's ban on the staid and conservative New York Herald Tribune is a so far suppressed book written by Herald Trib Correspondent Lewis Sebring, Jr., regarding MacArthur's wartime publicity machine.

Sebring covered the MacArthur campaign in the Southwest Pacific from the day Doug arrived in Australia until 1944. His book not only takes apart the commander's super-publicity setup, but tells about the luxurious mansion he built for himself on the hills of Hollandia and dissects various parts of the MacArthur claims to heroism. It is a book which every navy man would delight to read.

However, they may not be able to read it. Thomas Y. Crowell and Co., originally scheduled to publish the book, got cold feet. Later Doubleday & Co., considered publication, but also backed down.

Meanwhile Frank Kelly, who replaced Sebring as New York Herald Tribune correspondent, also had some clashes with MacArthur, and when censorship was finally lifted, wrote a scathing story on how newsmen were ordered to play up the supreme commander.

All of which may be why the Herald Trib is now branded by MacArthur as approaching "downright quackery and dishonesty."

—INSIDE THE MINERS' UNION—

The American public is prone to forget easily. When a crisis is over it goes back to pleasanter things.

But while most people now are busy with turkeys and Christmas trees John L. Lewis—even though his bushy brow ceases to adorn the front pages—continues an ever-present problem with another strike threatened March 31.

This columnist, therefore, believes it important to continue to remind the public of Mr. Lewis's backstage operations. When a man amasses as much power as John L., and uses it as ruthlessly, he merits never-ceasing public scrutiny, especially in view of what some of his own men have to say about him.

This column has long championed the general cause of the miners, but not all the miners agree with their union boss—though few have the nerve to speak out about him.

However, here is a letter from one union organizer who works directly under John's brother, Denny Lewis, and whose name must be withheld—for obvious reasons. His letter tells its own story:

"We field representatives who do the very necessary spade-work for the organization, are required to do everything from painting the homes of the regional union directors to murder. For this we get the magnanimous salary of $200 per month, plus the kicking around attested in the enclosed documents.

"My home is in Indiana. I was transferred to Pennsylvania mainly because I disapproved of beating up or murdering a Negro organizer of the rival CIO.

Q. What types of leave, formerly termed furlough, are to be charged against enlisted men in computing leave credits under the Armed Forces Leave Act of 1946?

A. Ordinary leaves, emergency leaves, pre-embarkation leaves, delay enroute and reenlistment leave.

Q. Does time served in the Navy in class V-1 and V-12 or the Naval Academy count in computing longevity credits?

A. Time served as an enlisted man in class V-1 and V-12 may be counted for longevity purposes, but time served as a midshipman USN may NOT be counted.

Q. While on leave from my permanent station I got married. Since I am a second lieutenant, am I not entitled to a travel allowance to cover the transportation of my wife to my permanent station?

A. No; since the orders assigning to a permanent station were issued PRIOR to the marriage.

Q. What is the weight and size of the average baby at birth?

A. Weight, seven pounds; height 20 to 21 inches.

Q. Who do the publishers of "Who's Who" select for their book?

A. They select those who are specially prominent in credible lines of effort, and those who are arbitrarily picked because of official position.

Q. Were nails used in the construction of the Mormon Temple at Salt Lake City?

A. No, the Mormons had no nails when the Temple was constructed, hence used wooden pegs.

Q. Is it easier for women to float than for men?

A. Women generally are more buoyant than men because their bones are smaller.

Q. How can one clean the burners and top parts of a gas stove?

A. By placing the burners in a large pan of water and washing soda (half pound of soda to a gallon of water), boil and let simmer till the grease and soot come off, then wipe with naper or an old brush, rinse with hot water, and replace.

SNOW LIKELY AFTER SLEET

High Wind And Colder
Weather Also Is In Prospect

Sleet that left a thin layer of extremely slippery ice on streets and highways yesterday made driving conditions very hazardous and the weather bureau reported that this will be followed by a snow storm that will result in three to five inches of snow.

And that's not all. Henry Hathaway, local federal meteorologist, said yesterday that a windstorm is indicated with a strong north-west wind of about 30 miles per hour in the City of Escanaba and increasing to as much as 45 miles per hour over Lake Michigan.

Colder weather also is in prospect with a drop in temperature to near zero in Escanaba and below zero away from the lake.

Pedestrians as well as motorists were plagued by the wet yesterday as sidewalks were treacherous. Many of the pedestrians downtown for Christmas shopping were caught without rubbers or galoshes, a factor that added to the discomfort.

Hathaway said yesterday that the flying of storm warning signals has been discontinued with the close of the navigation season but the weather bureau will notify by telephone those individuals who are keenly interested in the prospects for storms.

Fruit Cake

This is a recipe for whole nut fruit cake which requires no shortening and which keeps moist and fresh for months.

One pound Brazil nuts, whole
One pound dates, whole
One pound walnuts, whole
One cup white sugar.
Beat the yolks of four eggs and add to the first four ingredients.

Add:
Three rings candied pineapple, cut.

One-fourth pound raisins, whole
One-fourth pound candied cherries.

Then add one and one-half cups flour, two teaspoons baking powder and one large pinch of salt. Beat the four egg whites and add last. Bake in a medium oven one hour.

Christmas Plum Pudding
1 pound seedless raisins
1 pound currants.
One-fourth cup nutmeats (mixed).

2½ cups flour
4 eggs
2 cups molasses
2 cups buttermilk
1½ cups finely chopped or ground suet

½ cup lemon juice with wine or brandy flavoring added
2½ cups fine dry bread crumbs
2 teaspoons soda
1 teaspoon each of cloves, allspice, nutmeg and cinnamon
2 teaspoons salt.

Prepare fruit and nutmeats and dredge with one cup of flour. Beat eggs until light and fluffy, add molasses, then buttermilk, suet and flavored fruit juice. Stir in bread crumbs, then remaining flour, which has been sifted with soda, spices and salt. Add dredged fruits and nutmeats and mix. Pour into two greased three pound molds, cover and steam for three hours. Cool puddings, wrap with heavy wax paper and store. The puddings keep for weeks in a cool place. Reheat and serve hot with hard sauce.

Ships 152 Boxes
Of Gifts To Vets

A total of 152 gift boxes for hospitalized World War I veterans was shipped by the Junior Red Cross Saturday to Fort Custer, Battle Creek, Mrs. John Luecke, chairman, said yesterday. Each gift box was nicely wrapped for Christmas and contained all the articles useful to hospitalized service men, besides cigarettes, candy and nuts.

All city schools, Gladstone and several of the county schools contributed boxes under the sponsorship of the Junior Red Cross. Students brought the gifts to school, where they were carefully wrapped. Each room made up one or more boxes.

"Due to the shortage of standard Red Cross boxes we had to use empty shoe boxes which we gathered from the local shoe dealers," Mrs. Luecke said. "But that was all right. The children learned to decorate them into beautiful gift boxes. Many of the veterans keep their boxes. Dr. Clark informed me, for keeping their small belongings in long after Christmas is past."

This is the 20th consecutive year the Junior Red Cross has sent packages to veterans of the first World War who are hospitalized at Fort Custer. The shipment weighed 320 pounds.

From the Office of Veterans Affairs, the Junior Red Cross obtained the names of men from Delta county who are hospitalized either at Woods, Fort Custer or elsewhere, and seven separate parcels were expressed to these service men from the Delta chapter of the Junior Red Cross.

final examinations. Students will return to East Lansing on Thursday, January 2, to register for winter term classes, which will start on Monday, January 6.

Candidates for bachelor's degrees from Delta county are: Philip Francis Bruce and Kenneth Joseph Cleereham of Escanaba.

Suzanne Smith, Richard Stearns Exchange Vows

Wide interest is found in the wedding Saturday afternoon of Miss Suzanne Smith and Richard Andrus Stearns, who are en route to Denver, Col., on their honeymoon. The bride, daughter of Mrs. Leathem D. Smith, Sturgeon Bay, Wis., and the late Mr. Smith, is traveling in a slate gray pin stripe tulle, scarlet accessories and a muskrat coat.

For the nuptials at 5:30 p. m. in the Moravian church, Sturgeon Bay, the bride was gown in an oyster white faille frock, seed pearls studing the bertha which encircled the net yoke. A narrow band of the pearls also edged the long fitted sleeves of the dress en train. A halo of orange blossoms held in place the bridal veil of illusion. Sue carried a sheaf of calla lilies.

The bridegroom's parents, the Franklin Stearns, Westfield, N. J., came west for the ceremony. His brother, Robert F. Stearns, Westfield, was best man. Guests were seated by the ushers, Leonard Schober, George Baker and Harold Barrie, all of Green Bay, Wis.; Harry Purinton and Donald Fredrickson, both of Sturgeon Bay, and Jack Schmitz, Chicago.

Miss Patricia Smith, who was her sister's honor attendant, selected an orchid frock combining a lace bodice and ruffled net skirt worn over a hoop. The bridesmaids were in similar frocks—Miss Eunice Spille, Sturgeon, Bay, and Miss Mary Ryan, Glencoe, Ill., ice blue; Misses Joyce Collins and Ann Resch, Sturgeon Bay, peppermint pink, and Mrs. Robert Stearns and Miss Marion Stephenson, Sturgeon Bay, buttercup yellow. All wore matching maline halos and clasped colonial bouquets of roses and carnations in their hands.

Mrs. Smith received guests at a reception at home in a bluish pink crepe gown, sequins trimming the bodice. Gloves in a deeper shade and an orchid corsage composed her accessories. A cluster of pink tea roses contrasted with the silver gray crepe gown worn by Mrs. Stearns.

The young Stearns will live at 534 Memorial dr. in Sturgeon Bay.

Bookmobile Order Meets With Delay

Menominee — Curtailment of production, due to strikes and work stoppages, has delayed delivery of Menominee county's new bookmobile for the county library system and Miss Dena Babcock, county librarian said today she was hopeful the bookmobile would be here by February but has had no assurance of delivery even then. Purchase of the bookmobile was authorized by the Menominee county board of supervisors at the October budget session.

Auto manufacturers do not produce a vehicle completely equipped as a bookmobile and the one Menominee has ordered, a 10-ton International truck, will be equipped with shelves to convert it into a bookmobile after its delivery. Miss Babcock said the machine would have a capacity of between 700 and 800 books.

At present Miss Babcock handles all book deliveries to county libraries posts and schools outside the city. Her car is equipped with shelves which can accommodate about 75 books. The setup isn't as convenient as it will be when the bookmobile arrives because then county book borrowers can go into the machine and have a selection of several hundred books in making their selections.

Miss Babcock reports a growing interest in the library service in the rural areas since its establishment about a year ago. Branch units are maintained in several of the villages and the books are regularly changed to give the patrons as wide a variety of reading material as possible.

Christmas Party At Pinecrest 'San'

Iron Mountain—Santa Claus, in the person of Leo Lefebvre, will preside at the Christmas party Dec. 23 at Pinecrest Sanatorium, Powers, as part of the Red Cross entertainment program in connection with veteran rehabilitation work at the institution. Lefebvre has been appointed chairman of the Red Cross entertainment committee for the coming year.

Lucille DeRidder, vocalist, will sing at the party, and instrumental solos and novelty numbers will be given by Eddie Kozel, accordionist, and Roy Omette, who plays the guitar and violin.

Mike Calo will perform several dance numbers, including a rhythm tap dance, soft-shoe and routines he formerly presented as an Army entertainer.

As another feature of the Red Cross entertainment, the chorus and quartets of North Woods chapter, the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Singing in America, will go to Powers Friday night, Dec. 20, for carol-singing and other entertainment.

Dickinson Boys In Train Wreck

Iron Mountain—Bernard Mainville, Kingsford, and Thomas Spencer, Iron Mountain, privates in the Army, who arrived here on the Chippewa last night, related how they miraculously escaped death and injury in Friday's wreck of the Pennsylvania road Golden Triangle limited near Mansfield, O., which claimed the lives of 18 and injured 50.

Fourteen of the dead were soldier companions of the young local men who were members of a troop movement of 150 soldiers bound from Fort Dix, N. J., home for a 12-day furlough before embarking for Japan.

Pull To The Curb When The Fire Truck's Coming

Fire Chief Elmer Boal has a request to make to the motoring public. It goes into print somewhat modified from its original form because the chief was angry when he gave it out. Some superfluous words had to be deleted.

"When the fire department is making a run, motorists should pull up to the curb until the department vehicles have passed," says the chief, "but there isn't one resident in ten in Manistique who conforms with that regulation and it was only a miracle this morning that there wasn't a serious accident."

According to the chief, the department was making a call to the Northern Refrigeration company Monday morning and one of the fire trucks was rounding the turn at the intersection of River and Deerpark street when one car tried to pass another crowding the fire truck almost upon the sidewalk in front of the Schultz Brothers Furniture store. There was no excuse for the action of the offending car under any circumstances because cars are not supposed to pass on curves and in this case the offense was nothing less than criminal.

The call to the Northern Refrigeration company was at 9 o'clock Monday morning. An over heated pipe had set fire to the wall board through which it passed. The fire was put out before any serious damage occurred.

Early Sunday morning the department was called to the Girvin coal yard where the fire in the paper mill coal pile had broken out again. The fire was subdued without difficulty.

Later Sunday morning a call was sent from the Sharkey gas station on Chippewa avenue where a car had caught fire. Again the damage was nominal.

MESSIAH TO BE SONG TONIGHT

Concert Begins at 8:15
At High School Auditorium

Sponsors of the Messiah presentation at the school auditorium this evening are asking that it be reemphasized that there will be no admission charge and that no collection will be taken. However, those who wish to show their appreciation by a gift of money may do so. There will be receptacles placed at the rear of the auditorium where the donations may be placed.

They also wish it understood that children will be welcome but they must be accompanied by their parents. Children will not be admitted otherwise unless properly vouched for by some responsible adult person.

In view of the fact that the musical composition is of a profound religious nature, it is requested that no applause be given any of the numbers. And when the "Hallelujah" chorus is presented the audience is asked to rise in deference to the sublime moment emphasized by this particular selection.

"The Messiah," Handel's most successful and best known oratorio, was composed in the year 1746 in twenty-four days—from August 22 to September 14.

It was first performed at a concert given for charity in Dublin, Ireland. However, in this performance, Handel knew that Dublin orchestral and choral resources were not on a par with those of London and this fact had a marked influence in the composition. In his choruses he did not go beyond four-part writing and kept his orchestra within the most modest limits. Every year following the first presentation "The Messiah" has been presented in London where it has been widely acclaimed.

In the course of time, Handel made various alterations in certain numbers and transcribed a few arias, but left the work as a whole unchanged, revealing that despite its limitations, this primitive conception of the work was likewise an enduring one.

The custom of arising when the Hallelujah chorus is sung originated when King George III of England became so impressed with the grandeur of this particular bit of music that he rose to his feet. When he rose, the rest of the assembly, in deference to the king, had to do the same.

Christmas Tree Set Up At "Y" Of Cedar and River

A beautiful balsam evergreen, about twenty-five feet in height, has been set up at the intersection of Cedar and River streets and is being decked out with colored lights.

As if by prearrangement the tree was timed with Monday evening's snow storm and the event is decidedly Christmassy.

Colored lights have been strung up at intersections throughout the city. This will serve as a nucleus for a decorative scheme to be acquired from year to year and eventually give Manistique the appearance of a Christmas city on an elaborate scale.

Tell Us About Your Company

In most of the Manistique homes this coming week there will be company. Sons and daughters will be home from college or from the army or navy, aunts and uncles, grandpas and grandmas, friends of the family and other guests will arrive to add cheer to the grandest of all holidays.

Then again, some folks will leave to spend the holidays elsewhere.

The Daily Press would appreciate it very much if you folks will send us this information. Either leave a note at the office or call Telephone No. 155.

Other folks will share your happiness by reading this news in the City Briefs of the Daily Press.

Eugene Forrest Dies In Iron Mt.

Eugene Forrest, former Manistique resident, died at his home in Iron Mountain 2:30 o'clock on Sunday morning after a four year illness.

Before moving to Iron Mountain, Mr. Forrest conducted a roller rink in Manistique for 20 years.

Besides his widow, he is survived by a son, Edmond, and four daughters. Funeral services will be held 1:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

Social

Birthday Party

Marylyn Selling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Selling, 146 East Elk street, entertained several of her friends on Sunday afternoon at her home, the occasion being her fifth birthday anniversary.

Following an afternoon of games, lunch was served from a decorated table which was centered with a lighted birthday cake.

Marylyn received many nice gifts from the following friends: Johnny Mike and Joel Dyer, Ronald Bosanic, Joan Cook, Bucky Jones, and George Selling.

Local Girl Scout Troops Will Sing Christmas Carols

Carol singing and Christmas programs will occupy the Girl Scout and Brownie troops during the week preceding the holidays.

The girls will begin their Christmas caroling at 3:30 Sunday afternoon and will sing three favorites: "Away in a Manger," "Oh, Little Town of Bethlehem," and "Silent Night," at homes in the city where there are shut-ins.

Individual troop parties with programs and exchange of gifts will be held at the various troop meeting places. The Junior High troop will have its party today with Gail Lundstrom in charge of arrangements. She appointed Cleo Johnson, Jean Carlson, Louise Hall and Margaret Alice Mueller to plan the refreshments and Catherine Vezina, Ann Marie Sheehan, Gloria Radgens and Shirley McNamara to arrange the games.

Mrs. Leslie Bouschor met with the Senior Service Scouts at the high school Monday night to assist them in decorating the hall with Christmas wreaths and foliage so the school would look more festive when the townspeople come to hear "The Messiah."

In keeping with the World Friendship Project for the year, boxes containing gifts and clothing have been mailed to foreign countries. The Senior Service troop mailed a box to Norway, and the Junior High troop sent boxes to Czechoslovakia and The Philippines.

Catholic Civics Club Organized

Eighth grade pupils of All Saints school have organized a Catholic Civics club and have received a charter from the Commission on American Citizenship from the Catholic University of America, Washington, D. C.

The officers are: president, James LaLonde; vice - president, John Miller; recording secretary, Neil Sinclair; and sergeant-at-arms, Phillip Creten.

The purpose of this club is to train students in leadership; to acquaint them with the problems of society today; and to inspire devotion to the social ideals, scholastic standards, and Catholic principles of All Saints school.

Warm Days Die When Winter's Chill Creeps In

Munising—A cold snap in the weather such as we've had the last few days can easily erase all memory of warmer days. However, for the majority of days so far this month, Munising and locality have experienced unusually warm weather as reported by Albert Oas, local weather observer.

The observer's report shows that just five days ago on December 11 the high temperature was 43 degrees and that seven days ago on December 9 we experienced a welcoming warmth of 53 degrees.

The complete report for the period December 5 to December 11 is as follows:

	High	Low	Pre. rain	prec. snow
Dec. 5	39	31	0	0
Dec. 6	39	31	0	0
Dec. 7	41	33	0	0
Dec. 8	47	35	0.14	0
Dec. 9	53	35	0	0
Dec. 10	42	35	0	0
Dec. 11	43	35	0	0

Mean temperature for the period: 38.5.

Jackie DePew Back Home To Recuperate

Munising—Jackie De Pew, 10 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard DePew who was severely injured December 2 while sledding on Vardon hill was released from the St. Luke's hospital, Marquette and returned to his home on Saturday.

Jackie's condition is very satisfactory but he will be confined to his home for a few more weeks, it was stated. Besides internal injuries resulting from the accident, Jackie is also recovering from Yellow Jaundice contacted a short while ago.

FORESTRY'S PARTY

Munising—The Women's Catholic Order of Foresters will hold their annual Christmas party in the K. of C. hall on Tuesday evening.

A potluck lunch will be served and gifts will be exchanged.

The Juvenile Foresters will hold a party Tuesday afternoon which will include a visit by Santa who will distribute gifts to all around a Christmas tree in the hall.

Mrs. Leonel Santamore is chairman in charge of the evening affair and Mrs. Albin Nesberg will be in charge of the Juvenile Foresters party.

FIELD AGENT VISITS

Munising—Thomas J. Northey, Field Agent for the Michigan Department of Vocational Rehabilitation will accompany State Employment Service personnel on their weekly trip to Chatham, Traunik and Trenary, Wednesday, December 18, Walter C. Meyland, local MSES manager has announced.

Persons who have occupational disabilities or handicaps are urged to contact Mr. Northey for the service his agency renders, the manager said.

Mr. Northey will be at the local MSES office, December 19, between the hours of 8:30 and 11:00 a. m. Meyland stated.

LADY GRATEFUL FOR CLOTHING

Reich War Widow Tells Of Scarcity Of Essentials

An interesting note of thanks for clothing sent to Europe through a church agency has been received here by August Froberg, 552 North Ninth street. The letter was received from Lilly Schuh of Sultzbach - Rosenberg in Bavaria which is in American Zone I. Mr. Froberg said they put a note in a pocket of a garment given during a collection made by a local church about a year ago. The missive was addressed to Mrs. Arnold and August Froberg and was written in English. It had been censored. It follows:

"Dear Mrs. Froberg: 'You were so kind and have sent valuable and warm clothes to the German Lutheran church for the most poor of the poor.'

"I have got your precious present and I am so glad of it. Many, many thanks! You were so charitable to help me in a bad, distressed condition.

"Since the end of the war is our attendant a very severe need of body and soul. Deprived from an undeserved destiny of all property and many a dear relation we will pray in imperturbable faith to our God. He may help us in all our needs. Hunger and cold are knocking at the door. Without the Christian charity of your people it has been often scarcely possible to hope tomorrow. For all that we will hope to a better time.

Perhaps it is interesting for you to know who I am and how I do live.

"I am a widow and have a little boy which is five years old. In this terrible war I have lost my dear husband. 1943 I must left my home with my little child and now I do live in other city in one

"Thank you very much for your Christian and valuable gift. God bless you and save you!

"I wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

"Many love greetings from 'Your grateful,'

"Lilly Schuh.

"Please, excuse me for so many mistakes. It should be rejoicing for me, when you write again."

George Thomas Is Injured When Hit By Car On Sunday

George Thomas of the Flooring Plant addition suffered a fracture of the right leg when struck by an auto driven by Donald Menard, 1414 Michigan avenue, shortly after 6 o'clock Sunday evening on North Ninth near Fourth avenue.

In another accident, Mrs. Walter J. Pinar of Wells sustained an arm injury when an auto driven by her husband went across the highway near Third avenue north and struck a light pole, snapping it in two Sunday evening at 10:30 o'clock.

Pinar told officers the lights went out on the car and he was attempting to get them back on while driving when the car swerved across the road.

CLOTHING MAY SOLVE MYSTERY

Officers Say Skeleton May Be Remains Of Theodore Larson

Remnants of clothing found with the skeleton of a man discovered in a swamp near Bark River Saturday may identify the remains as those of Theodore Larson, of Brampton, who disappeared while visiting at Bark River about four years ago.

Sheriff William E. Miron and Gladstone state police yesterday continued their investigation of the gruesome find, made Saturday by Kenneth Palmgren, son of Herman Palmgren of Bark River, while he was hunting rabbits.

The bones were found by the officers Sunday morning after they searched unsuccessfully for them in the darkness Saturday night. Taken to the Degnan funeral home in Escanaba, the bones and parts of the clothing, are being held until the investigation is complete.

The sheriff said yesterday that he had contacted Mrs. Mildred Norden of New Swanzy, a daughter of Theodore Larson. She and other sons and daughters of Larson are expected in Escanaba today to view the clothing in an effort to identify it as that of Larson when he disappeared.

Officers reported that they believed the man whose bones were found had hanged himself, because a piece of rope was found above head height on the tree under which the skeleton was discovered.

Gideon Grondine Of Escanaba Dies

Gideon Grondine, 83, retired Spalding farmer, died at St. Francis hospital, 9:30 o'clock Sunday night. He was ill one week with pneumonia.

Mr. Grondine was born in St. Albans, Que., Canada, Jan. 14, 1863, covered. Rubbers, a belt buckle, and part of a coat also were found.

Some of the pieces of clothing yesterday were taken to Marquette by state police, in an effort to have them identified by a daughter of Larson's who is reported to live there.

and moved to Spalding when a young man in 1878. He retired from farming seven years ago, and came to Escanaba to live with his daughter, Mrs. Merle Gregory, 714 First avenue south. His wife preceded him in death March 4, 1936.

He is survived by six sons and four daughters: Jerry, Spalding; Homer, Marenisco; Edward, Manistique; John and Sam, Spalding; and Edmond, Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Emma Schultz, Milwaukee; Mrs. John (Mayme) Maher, Watersmeet; Mrs. Gordon, Anne Prout, Saline, Mich.; and Mrs. Merle (Malvina) Gregory, Escanaba; also 31 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

He was a member of St. Ann church and the Holy Name society.

The body will lie in state at the Alto funeral home, beginning at two o'clock this afternoon. Funeral services will be held at St. Francis Xavier church in Spalding nine o'clock Thursday morning, with Rev. Fr. Frank Selfert officiating. Burial will be in the Spalding cemetery.

The daughters of Isabella will meet at the Alto funeral home 4:15 o'clock this afternoon to recite the Rosary.
